

PS3

1. Observe that you have the faculty of 'Natural Acceptance', based on which you can verify what is right or what is not right for you. Of course, you may or may not be generally referring to your natural acceptance for making decisions. So, find out if you get a spontaneous answer when you ask yourself basic questions, like the ones mentioned below:
 - (a) You want to live in relationship (harmony) with others or You want to live in opposition with others?
 - (b) In relationship, you want to live with the feeling of respect or disrespect (for yourself and for others)?
 - (c) You want to nurture others or to exploit others?

Is your living in accordance with your natural acceptance or different from it? How do you feel when your living is in accordance with your natural acceptance; and when it is in contradiction to your natural acceptance?

2. Make a list of the problems in your family. For each problem, find out the most significant reason: is it related to lack of right understanding, lack of feelings in relationship or lack of physical facility? Also find out how much time and effort you have devoted for each in the last one week.

Expected Outcome: The students are able to see that self-verification on the basis of their natural acceptance (and experiential validation through living) is an effective way to verify what is right and what is wrong for them. They are able to see that, in many cases, their actual living is not in accordance with their natural acceptance. They are able to see that they are uncomfortable when their living is in contradiction with their natural acceptance; they are comfortable when they are living in accordance with their natural acceptance.

The students are able to see that, in most of the cases, lack of feeling in relationship is the major cause of problems in their family and with friends rather than the lack of physical facility. However, most persons give higher priority to physical facility in their life, giving a lower priority to or even ignoring relationship. They are so far not aware that right understanding, and right feeling on the basis of right understanding, is the primary need of human being.
